CONDITIONS OF HIRE

The hirer accepts full responsibility for the safety of the tipi and equipment and the safety of any person who makes use of the tipi and equipment for the duration of the hire period.

The hirer is responsible for the safety and security of the tipi and equipment from the date/time of collection of the tipi until returned to Wey Farm.

Cats, dogs or any other animal are not permitted inside the tipi unless discussed with Wey Farm Outdoors prior to booking.

The hirer will take all reasonable steps to make sure that the equipment is not at any time altered or interfered with.

The hirer will ensure that the tipi, outer canvas, inner liner, ropes, poles, pegs or any other parts of the tipi including any furnishings and stoves are not removed, modified or altered in any way.

Any damage caused to the tipi, outer canvas, inner liner, ropes, poles, pegs, furnishings and stoves will be solely the clients fault and will be invoiced for damage caused.

The hirer takes full responsibility for the actions of third parties that cause safety issues or fire risks and the consequences that result from such risks. Fire bowl/barbeque must be situated at least 6 metres away from the tipi and must be extinguished when un-attended.

No fires are allowed inside the tipi except for the Eldfell stove supplied by Wey Farm Outdoors.

Candles are not permitted inside the tipi.

The equipment remains the sole property of Wey Farm Outdoors at all times and the hirer is prohibited from hiring, selling or parting possession from the equipment for the duration of the hire period.

The tipis supplied have an opening at the top that can be adjusted to reduce the amount of rain that enters the tipi. However, rain may still be able to enter and you may experience the odd drip inside the tipi.

Whilst Wey Farm Outdoors will always do its best to ensure that you enjoy the use of the tipi Wey Farm Outdoors cannot be held responsible for bad weather or acts of God. The tipi should not to be used in lightening storms and should be evacuated if this is the case. Refunds will not be given.

A deposit is required to secure the tipi booking and must be received no later than 10 days of the order been made. If the booking is made within two weeks of the event taking place we require full payment upon booking. If the deposit is not received within the given time the tipi. may be booked by another party. If more time is needed to send the deposit please email.

A debit/credit card , bacs payment for 50% is required upon booking to secure the tipi.
